Our Core Values

- We believe in the unconditional acceptance of all. We love, care and nurture in non-judgmental ways.
- We value the empowerment of members in a positive, safe and trusting environment.
- We believe that people can have a better life through a ministry of hope with practical guidance and support.
- We value community responsibility. Everyone in our "family" - staff, members and supporters - contributes. We are our brothers'/sisters' keepers.
- We provide an atmosphere which fosters and encourages respect for one another.
- We believe in networking with other agencies and the community at large to help meet members' needs.
